REX TOTAL BODY RECUMBENT ELLIPTICAL

SCIFIT's exclusive total body recumbent elliptical offers a smooth, natural movement that allows comfortable, effective exercise. REX's smooth motion provides a natural and consistent flexion and extension. REX's unique program options and bi-directional resistance provide an exceptional total body workout.

- Low profile seat back for optimized torso rotation and core recruitment.
- Dual position hand grips allow users of all sizes to exercise in a natural and comfortable position. Altering the hand position promotes muscle balance.
- Bi-directional resistance allows the user to exercise in both forward and reverse, changing directions at any time and as often as desired, prolonging an exercise session and promoting muscle balance.
- Optional swivel seat available for easy entry.
